

Wood Carver and Turner Exhibit at Eagle Creek Park

Hello, preparations for the 2017 Woodcarver and Turner Exhibit at Eagle Creek Park are underway. This year we will again be holding the exhibit the first weekend in March. Please feel free to contact Staff Naturalist Jennifer (Jennifer.Boyce@indy.gov) with any questions or concerns you have regarding this year's show.

In order to have enough time to set up and gather tables, racks, food, etc. I will need to have all registration and entry forms no later than Friday, February 17th.

There is a $25.00 table fee for each participant.

Exhibit Times and Dates:

Saturday, March 4, 2017	9:00am-5:00pm
Sunday, March 5, 2017	9:00am-5:00pm

Exhibit Set Up:

Friday, March 3, 2016	10:00am - 4:00pm
-----------------------	------------------

Guidelines:

Please help to ensure a quality event by following these guidelines.

1. All carving, sculpture, and wood-burning entries should depict wildlife, flora and fauna, and/or traditional American Indians to help maintain a natural theme throughout the show. All woodturnings must utilize natural wood products.
2. The Eagle Creek Park Foundation can process credit card payments for a 15% commission, which goes directly to the foundation to help cover costs of art shows and improvements in the park. *For consistency with other shows at this location, please DO NOT charge guests an extra 15% on top of the price of your item. If you would like to offer a "cash discount" that is okay.
3. The Eagle Creek Park Foundation and Eagle Creek Park reserves the right to remove any art deemed inappropriate or which does not comply with event guidelines at any time.
4. All artwork must be displayed until 5:00pm on Sunday.
5. You have until March 10th at 5pm to pick up your artwork. After this time the artwork becomes the sole property of Eagle Creek Park.
6. The decisions of the Eagle Creek Park Foundation and Eagle Creek Park are FINAL.

What You Should Bring:

Covers for your tables, lights if you need them, extension cords and adapter plugs. All artists are encouraged, but not required, to demonstrate during the exhibit.

The Earth Discovery Center has a pantry with a refrigerator to store refreshments. Saturday and Sunday we will provide a light breakfast in the morning, soup and sandwiches for lunch. This exhibit is free to the public with paid park admission. Artists should give their names at the gates when picking up and dropping off artwork. If you have any questions about this event please call the Earth Discovery Center at (317) 327-7148 and ask for Jennifer. Hope to see you there!
