Event: 5th annual Iron Eagle Paddle & Run

Date: Saturday, July 22, 2017

Time: 6:30-7:30 boat drop-off and check-in; 8 a.m. race starts

Cost: $50 before May 1; $60 before July 1; $70 before July 23; $80 day of. Participants who register by June 20 are guaranteed a performance T-shirt in their size. Boat rentals available online through July 21 ($25 single kayaks, $35 double kayaks/canoes); limited availability, and rental is additional to entry fee. All members of the Eagle Creek Park Foundation will receive a $10 discount for the race.

Location: Eagle Creek Park Beach, 7800 Eagle Beach Dr, Indianapolis, IN 46254

Details: Athletes of all ages can explore Eagle Creek Park, one of the nation's largest city parks, via land and water alternating between trail runs and a canoe or kayak leg. The race starts at the beach and consists of a 2.5-mile trail run, 1.5-mile paddle, and 2.5-mile trail run back to the beach.

Participants can enter as an individual, or 2-person team, and have the option to bring personal kayaks or canoes (with life jackets and paddles), or rent a boat in advance from Eagle Creek Outfitters.

An after party will be held post-race at the Earth Discovery Center. 100% of proceeds benefit the Eagle Creek Park Foundation to support trail restoration projects, environmental education programs and park improvements.

To register: Log on EagleCreekPark.org.
